NOTICE TO PURCHASERS

The real property, described below, that you are about to purchase is located in Green DeWitt Drainage District. The District has taxing authority separate from any other taxing authority and may, subject to voter approval, issue an unlimited amount of bonds and levy an unlimited rate of tax in payment of such bonds. As of this date, the rate of taxes levied by the District on real property located in the District is $0.09580 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The total amount of bonds approved by the voters and which have been or may, at this date, be issued is $0.00 (excluding refunding bonds and any bonds or any portion of bonds issued that are payable solely from revenues received or expected to be received under a contract with a governmental entity).

The aggregate initial principal amounts of all bonds issued for one or more of the specified facilities of the District and payable in whole or in part from property taxes is $0.00.

The District may have the authority to adopt and impose a standby fee on property in the District that has water, sanitary sewer, or drainage facilities and services available but not connected and which does not have a house, building, or other improvement located thereon and does not substantially utilize the utility capacity available to the property. The District may exercise any such authority without holding an election on the matter. As of this date, the District does not impose a standby fee.

The District is located in part within the corporate boundaries of the City of Cuero. The taxpayers of the District are subject to the taxes imposed by the municipality and by the District unless the District is dissolved by any lawful means.

The purpose of this District is to provide water, drainage, or flood control facilities and services within the District through the issuance of bonds payable in whole or in part from property taxes. The cost of these utility facilities is not included in the purchase price of your property, and these utility facilities are owned or to be owned by the District. The legal description of the property you are acquiring is as follows:
